

NINERDS WARNED BY COMMISSIONERS

ALBANY, Nov. 14.—"Don't shoot at the white tail of a deer if that is all you can see," says the Conservation Commission; "it may be the handkerchief of a person who is wiping his face. A man was killed that way last Sunday."

"Don't shoot at an indistinct object. It may be a man stooping over. A hunter in the Adirondacks was shot through the heart while plucking a wild flower a few days ago."

"Don't shoot at a movement in the bushes. A hunter died in the hospital yesterday from injuries caused by a careless fellow hunter."

The only safe method is to "Look before you shoot," and be sure what you are shooting at, is Commissioner Pratt's warning. Twenty-two hunting accidents have already been reported to the Conservation Commission this season, four of which have proved fatal.

Andorra, Smallest and Oldest Republic, Pays Its President $16 Year

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Direct from a paradise—where since the year 841 there have been no politics, strikes, profiteering, drunkenness or disorder and but one violent death—came two men to New York yesterday. They journeyed from Andorra, the oldest and smallest republic in the world. The steamship Cataluna, from Barcelona, Spain, brought them.

It costs Andorra $400 a year to maintain its independence and peace from outside interference, they said. This money is paid in tribute equally divided between France and Spain, its neighbors. Charlemagne gave the territory its freedom, and it has been maintained uninterrupted to date.

Fisk Warren and Joseph Alemany, trustees of the single-tax colony of San Jordi, were the two arrivals from Andorra. They are on their way to Fairhope, Ala., near Mobile, to attend the celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary as the oldest and largest single-tax community in the world.

Andorra, they said, pays its president $16 a year and its twenty-four members of parliament $5 each. The country is 115 square miles in extent. Its population is 5,000.

"There is no internal strife in Andorra," Mr. Warren declared, "because the people know each other so well that irresponsible persons never can hope to fool any part of them any part of the time and ever hold office. There are no newspapers. A large percentage of the people are illiterate, but intelligent."

BOY ADMITS LURING GIRL OF 17 AWAY

Enticed Her to Home of Negress in Alley and Kept Her There Five Days.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 14.—Accused of being a "vicious minor without proper care," Carroll N. McCready, 17 years old, was committed to jail for a further hearing November 20, by Justice Schroeder in Northern Police Court yesterday. The charge against McCready was brought by Patrolmen Hennick and Hancock, of police headquarters, after their investigation of the disappearance of Mary B. McIsaac, 17 years old, and the subsequent finding of the girl at the home of a negress in Hunter alley.

According to Marshall Carter, the influence alleged to have been exercised by McCready over Miss McIsaac is without parallel in local police annals. McCready, when questioned yesterday, is alleged to have admitted defiantly accusations made against him by police and to have asked them "What of it?" Miss McIsaac returned to her home Tuesday night and for several hours she was questioned by Headquarters Detective Pohl, who reported the girl's statement involving McCready, to Marshall Carter.

For a week Patrolmen Hennick and Hancock had worked on the case and the trap they set resulted in McCready's arrest Wednesday night when he was taken from the McIsaac home by Headquarters Detectives Roche and Quick.

When questioned yesterday McCready is alleged to have admitted that he arranged for Miss McIsaac to stay at the home of the negress. He is alleged to have admitted that he lived at the house five days, the time Miss McIsaac was missing from home. The statement made to Detective Pohl by the girl, according to Marshall Carter, coincides with information obtained from McCready.

McCready's apparent bravado had no limit. During the absence of the girl from her home and while members of her family were making efforts to find her, he is alleged to have sent a letter to Mrs. McIsaac, informing her of his association with her daughter and detailing what had happened while the girl was away from home.

Marshall Carter directed that criminal action be taken against the negress who aided McCready in enticing the girl from her home.

GIRL DROWNS SELF AT SPIRIT'S CALL

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Nov. 14.—A case in which the cult of spiritualism led to a suicide of an extraordinary character was decided before the Auckland supreme court, where a girl of nineteen, named Pearl Burke, was tried on the charge of aiding and abetting a friend in committing suicide.

The case concerned the drowning of Jessie West in Whangarei harbor. Burke, the spirit of Frederick Botta, a man who died three months ago, and of whom Jessie West had been enamored, appeared before the two girls and declared that he wanted Jessie, without whom he could not rest.

The girl then decided to drown herself. Pearl Burke accompanied her at night to Whangarei. "On arriving at the wharf," declared the accused girl in court, "I took off all of her clothing with the exception of a nightgown and a pair of stockings, and after handing her clothes to me, walked down the wharf steps and went quietly into the water. When she was in the water I watched her for three or four minutes before I left the wharf to return to the hotel."

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and Justice Chapman stated that he agreed with their findings, pointing out that the woman who had committed suicide was the leading mind, and that the part played by Pearl Burke was an entirely passive one.

BATHS CONVERT REDS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Bathrooms, barber shops, and good meals are making Americans out of the Reds imprisoned on Ellis Island, immigration officials say.

FEELING EFFECT OF PROSECUTION

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The horny hand of the grocer is busy in his store window surreptitiously changing tens into fives.

Thanks be to the profiteering tribunals. While every tongue is wagging about the high cost of living these tribunals are ruthlessly asking the question, "Why?" People are asked to shout for help whenever the cloven hoof of the profiteer is suspected and they are not backward in accepting the invitation.

Shrieks from far and wide are being investigated. Some of them are only squeals, but these, according to the tribunals are the ones that count. The case which has given grocers so furiously to think was one in which a complaint stated a grocer had charged 10 cents for one ounce of pepper. The grocer admitted that the pepper was invoiced to him at 26 cents per pound, showing his retail profit to be 220 per cent. He was ordered to refund 5 cents to his customer and the chairman intimated that the "matter would not end there."

Under the profiteering act offenders are liable to three months' imprisonment as well as a $1,500 fine, and he who rifles the public pocket steadily a few cents at a time is just as liable to punishment as the man who makes one good haul from a $100 overcharge.

JURY FINDS NEGRO GUILTY OF SLAYING

Charles Price, colored, charged with first degree murder in connection with the death May 20, 1918, of Robert Smith, colored, whom he shot and killed in Springman's court southwest, was found guilty yesterday by a jury in Criminal Court No. 1, Justice Gould presiding. His wife, Annie, jointly indicted with her husband for the same crime, was acquitted.

According to the testimony a number of men and women gathered at Price's home in Springman's court on the fatal day to get some liquor. Smith asked Price for his change. Price said there was no change. Smith insisted.

Price then told his wife to get his pistol in the next room. She did and gave it to her husband, who shot Smith. Price set up the plea of self-defense. He was represented by Attorney James A. O'Shea, Assistant District Attorney J. J. O'Leary appearing for the Government.
